Criteria to the Secondary One Discretionary Places is based on students' conduct (excellent or good); selection criteria for interview are academic results, position in the Rank Order List provided by the EDB (50%), extra-curricular activities and services (20%); interview include creativity, critical thinking and their abilities in presentation (30%). The above overall performance accounts to 100%. (For details, please refer to our school webpage.)

Orientation Activities and Healthy Life

S.1 adaptation programmes and Parents' Talk are organized.

Our school aims at promoting whole-person education and values students' all-round development.

With the introduction of the Healthy School Programme and health-related activities, our school helps students raise their awareness on physical health and develop a healthy and well-balanced lifestyle.

School Characteristics
School Management
School's Major Concerns: 1. Enhancing the ability when encountering adversity, promoting healthy lifestyle, inheriting the Chinese culture. 2. Optimizing the school-based curriculum, developing generic skills, enhancing reading literacy.
School Management Organisation: Our school adopts the school-based management policy. Our school's management team possesses sound professional knowledge and is able to lead the school for a sustainable development and the implementation of the Senior Secondary curriculum. Our school also has a clear and well-structured management mechanism. The roles and responsibilities of staff members in all levels and subject departments are clear and all teams collaborate well. Under the school's effective management strategy, our school is continuously developing and the effectiveness in learning and teaching has thus further been enhanced.
Incorporated Management Committee / School Management Committee / Management Committee: School Management Committee
School Green Policy: Our school has set up an Environmental Protection Education Team. Green prefects of each class are led by teachers-in-charge of the committee to help promote environmental protection education. Our school has been awarded the title of "Green School" for many years.
Learning and Teaching Plan
Whole-school Language Policy: Starting from the year 2010-2011, our school has implemented a school-based language policy. Lessons of major subjects are conducted in English in some junior classes while not more than 25% of the total lesson time of the remaining junior classes is allocated to English extended learning activities (ELA). We are devoted to creating an excellent language learning environment for students. Through multifarious co-curricular activities, we provide ample opportunities for students to reinforce their biliterate and trilingual ability in order to help them attain proficiency in both Chinese and English.
Learning and Teaching Strategies: Our school has clear objectives and policies in curriculum development. Observing the student-oriented principle, a unique school-based curriculum is designed. For instance, STEAM is implemented in junior secondary levels, cross-curriculum learning activities are designed, aiming at widening the horizons of junior form students and enriching their problem solving skills. For senior form students, broad and flexible subject selection is made possible as our school offers a wide range of science, arts and commercial subjects. This subject selection strategy is adopted with an aim to cater for the diversified interests among students and the needs for their further studies and career development. Our students possess a pro-active learning attitude and a good reading habit. They are also attentive in class, conscientious in accomplishing assignments and able to confidently conduct discussions in English. Students learn collaboratively through projects and have keen interests in exploring new ideas. Our teachers are professionals with very sound subject knowledge and conscientious manner. We have clear teaching objectives, which are revealed in their tactical use of a rich variety of teaching resources and IT facilities in helping students consolidate the concepts they grasp. Besides, through our "Peer Lesson Observation" and "Project-based Learning", the high-order thinking and creativity of students have flourished. This programme has effectively fostered an inquiring mind and ability in developing generic skills among students. To promote students' daily reading habits, morning reading sessions are held twice weekly. Chinese and English Extensive Reading Schemes and various reading programmes have been launched by our reading promotion team.
School-based Curriculum: 1. Electives: 2X and 3X. Students can select 2-3 subjects among 14 choices. Relevant subject combinations are compiled based on students' wishes and human resources of our school. 2. Curriculum highlights: Our school offers a broad curriculum that covers various key learning areas and "STEAM" is implemented in our school-based curriculum in S.1-S.3.
Major Renewed Emphases in the School Curriculum: Our school has a long history in developing the four key tasks through formal and informal curriculum. The promotion of reading is achieved through the morning reading sessions twice a week. Students are supervised by teachers and given the autonomy to select suitable reading materials (books and newspapers) for the morning reading sessions to encourage them to read widely. Students are encouraged to engage in e-learning activities after school by visiting the school intranet and other e-platforms. Project learning and peer assessment are introduced to enhance students' ability in doing group research. It is hoped that students can make progress together in collaborative learning. Students are encouraged to contribute to society through active involvement in community service. A series of national education activities are launched to promote civic education with an aim to enhancing their national identity.
Life Planning Education: Our school is dedicated to promote career and life planning education in all levels. From S.1 to S.6, the Class Teachers and Co-class Teachers of each class provides timely advice on students' life planning and learning, enabling students to set realistic goals. To cater for the needs of different levels, the school organises activities like Careers Expo, which enables students to understand their own abilities and interests, as well as the needs of society. By doing so, they can plan for a better future.
Student Support
Whole School Approach to Catering for Learner Diversity: Our school cultivates a caring and collaborative culture, encourages peer rapport and caters for individual differences. The level of difficulty of each exam paper is tailor-made to cater for the diverse ability in learning of students. Our counselling and discipline teams, the school social worker and the educational psychologist also work collaboratively to achieve the above aim. With an understanding and caring attitude, a range of tailor-made supportive programmes are designed in accordance with the needs of students, helping them in self realization and easing their stress whenever possible emotional or behavioural problems arise. Our school is dedicated to promote value education, life planning and leadership training to provide the best support for students and to unleash their potential.
Whole School Approach to Integrated Education: Our school is committed to creating a caring and inclusive culture by adopting the "Whole School Approach" in hope of providing a favorable learning environment for students with Special Educational Needs (SEN). The Student Support Team, which comprises the principal, vice-principal(s), SENCO, SENST and other professionals work closely to render full support to SEN students. Through the use of the Learning Support Grant provided by the Education Bureau, our school offers a wide range of tailor-made services for SEN students to help them integrate into school life. The Student Support Team takes the initiative to approach SEN students, cater for their needs and provide them with individual and group counselling services. Volunteer training programmes and after-school activities are also designed to strengthen students' learning ability, improve their communication skills, boost their self-confidence and encourage them to establish harmonious relationships with their peers. To support students with SEN, the Student Support Team carries out systematic needs assessment and design and implement support in the form of an individual education plan (IEP) to appropriately address their support needs. Our school also provides special arrangements in internal examinations as well as help SEN students to apply for special examination arrangements in public examinations. Our school flexibly utilises the Grant to the full by employing additional staff, including a teaching assistant and an inclusive education assistant, to provide meticulous care for each SEN student so as to ensure their learning attitude and social behavior are well conformed. The implementation of these measures builds up a caring and supportive learning environment for our SEN students.
Measures to Provide Adaptation for Learning and Assessment: Our school adopts both formative and summative assessments. Assessments include students' in-class performance and assignments, regular uniform tests, half-yearly and yearly examinations of all subjects. We compile "Student Learning Profile" for students in each academic year to facilitate and reflect students' personal growth.

Home-School Co-operation and School Ethos*Home-School Co-operation:

The school maintains a close relationship with parents. Two parent representatives are elected to participate in the formulation of school development policy in School Management Committee.
