S.1 Admission, Orientation Activities & Healthy School Life

Secondary One Admission

Our school will accept discretionary places. Our school will participate in the Secondary School Places Allocation System through central allocation stage (Applicable for admission to S.1 in September 2026).

1. Academic performance in P4, P5 and P6 (40%)
2. Conduct (20%)
3. Extra-curricular activities (20%)
4. Performance in the admissions interview (20%)

Orientation Activities and Healthy Life

Our school offers various activities to support students, such as the S.1 Student Orientation Day Camp, S.1 Parent Orientation Night, and Summer English Bridging Course. Senior students lead activities through the Peer Counseling Program to help S.1 students adjust to school life. We prioritize nurturing students' spiritual, social-emotional, and physical well-being. A positive lifestyle is encouraged through initiatives like Christian Fellowship, S.1 Growth Camp, life-skills programs, and class teacher periods. School-wide programs also raise awareness about the negative effects of web addiction, drugs, and gambling, promoting a positive life perspective.

School Characteristics
School Management
School's Major Concerns: School's Major Concerns (2025-28) Be Smart Learners. Care for Ourselves and the Community. Develop a sustainable Teaching Team.
School Management Organisation: Our School Alumni Association, Parent-Teacher Association, Student Union, Staff Affairs Committee and the like complement each other to offer quality education.
Incorporated Management Committee / School Management Committee / Management Committee: Incorporated Management Committee
School Green Policy: Environmental conservation and a low-carbon lifestyle are consistently promoted in our school. Innovative programs have been launched to foster awareness and cultivate habits of low-carbon living both within the school and in daily life. Dissemination of low-carbon tips that encourage recycling, energy reduction, a low-carbon diet, school greening, and participation in external environmental conservation activities is undertaken with the support of student ambassadors. By embracing low-carbon lifestyles, we can utilize Earth's resources wisely.
Learning and Teaching Plan
Whole-school Language Policy: The school adopts English as the medium of instruction in all subjects except Chinese Language and Chinese History for all S.1 classes
Learning and Teaching Strategies: Our teaching and learning strategies are designed to cater to the diverse needs, abilities, and learning styles of our students. We promote active engagement, collaborative learning, and individualized support to ensure that each student reaches their full potential. Our school values the holistic development of students, encompassing their moral, intellectual, physical, social, aesthetic, and spiritual growth. We provide a balanced curriculum that integrates academic subjects, physical education, aesthetic, and character education, fostering well-rounded individuals. We regularly review our teaching practices, curriculum, and assessment methods to adapt to evolving educational needs and standards.
School-based Curriculum: 1. Electives: 3X. 3 Electives. Some students can take Mathematics Extended Part - M 1 or M 2, Other Languages Subjects or Applied Learning Subjects in addition to the 3 electives. 2. Curriculum highlights: (1) Electives: 3X (including M1). 3 Electives. Some students can take Mathematics Extended Part - M2, Other Languages Subjects or Applied Learning Subjects in addition to the 3 electives. (2) Curriculum highlights: S.1-S.2 English Phonics, Phonetics & Spelling Programme; S.1 Nonfiction Reading Programme; S1-3 STEAM; S.1 to S.5 School-based Gifted and Talent Program.
Major Renewed Emphases in the School Curriculum: National Security Education and Moral & Civic Education is delivered through both internal and external means. Morning assemblies, bi-weekly assemblies, multicultural exchange programs, and current affairs forums are some of the ways to expose students to issues in daily life and society, through which they build their cultural and national identities. Diverse and effective whole-school reading schemes and activities have fostered a strong reading culture. Our reading promotion activities include the Exploring a New Horizon Reading Award Scheme, Parent-Child Reading Competition, Story Sharing Corner, and also nonfiction reading lessons that integrate reading and writing.
Life Planning Education: Believing that each student has their own interests, abilities and orientations and realizing that there are multiple pathways after they graduate, we implement individual student planning, ensuring each student receives career guidance from an advisor in the last two years of their secondary schooling. The objectives are to help them understand their career/academic aspirations, make informed choices and review their academic performance, achievements and other factors in relation to their career/educational pursuits.  The core sessions of the school-based Gifted and Talent Program in S3-5 are Career Explorer. S3 students will get to know their interests and abilities and different career types. S4 students will have a chance to meet alumni studying in university and attend a personal image workshop. S5 students will start to write their self-account and learn interview skills. There are also S6 transition talks preparing students for various university applications.  The Career Week and other interventions like campus and worksite visits, etc. offer our students opportunities to learn and explore study pathways and the world of work.
Student Support
Whole School Approach to Catering for Learner Diversity: We utilize a variety of instructional approaches and resources to cater to diverse learning styles, abilities, and interests. A comprehensive range of school-based gifted and talented programs is available to offer additional learning opportunities for students seeking more challenging and advanced content. To foster self-directed learning attitudes and skills, we implement various strategies that empower students to take ownership of their education. Furthermore, we provide ongoing professional development opportunities for teachers to enhance their knowledge and skills in meeting the diverse needs of our students.
Whole School Approach to Integrated Education: Our school supports students with special educational needs through a whole-school approach. Strategies and support include home visits, individual counselling, enrichment courses, training in social skills, speech therapy services, behavioural therapy services, training provided by external resources and a parent group which facilitates exchange of information and emotional support. The school will provide students with different on-campus and off-campus support services, including specialized assessment arrangements based on professional evaluation reports.  The Student Support Team, comprising the Vice-Principal, Chairperson of the Counseling and Guidance Committee, SEN Coordinator, SEN Support Teachers, teachers, SEN Support Assistant, school social workers, school-based Educational Psychologist, and school-based Speech Therapist, initiates meetings and devises tailored educational plans to cater for students of different educational needs.
Education Support for Non-Chinese Speaking (NCS) Students: Our school provides additional support for NCS students to facilitate their learning of Chinese: providing after-school support programmes in learning Chinese; appointing additional teacher(s)/teaching assistant(s) to support NCS students' learning of Chinese; arranging intensive Chinese learning and teaching mode(s), e.g. pull-out learning if necessary, split-class/group learning, etc.; and organising activities to create an inclusive learning environment in the school.
Measures to Provide Adaptation for Learning and Assessment: Report cards are issued three times a year to keep students and their parents informed of their learning progress. Students are encouraged to set their own goals and embrace challenges. We adopt a formative assessment approach and emphasize the process of learning.

Home-School Co-operation and School Ethos*Home-School Co-operation:

Through Parents' Nights, parent education talks, parent groups, the Parent-Child Reading Scheme, social gatherings, the PTA Homepage, the e-Parent Handbook, and more, the Parent-Teacher Association promotes home-school cooperation and enhances mutual understanding between teachers and parents.
