School Characteristics
School Management
School's Major Concerns: Fostering experiential learning and broadening global perspectives for students; Nurturing self-understanding and empowering self-actualization for students.
School Management Organisation: The IMC of the school sets the right directions and strategies for the school. Staff meetings and the Standing Committee of the school are to decide and formulate school policies on various aspects. Various committees and subject panels of the school are executing all the teaching and learning plans and affairs. The Student Council is responsible for planning and giving impetus to all students' activities.
Incorporated Management Committee / School Management Committee / Management Committee: The IMC of the school is composed of experienced persons from the community. Members of the IMC include representatives from the sponsoring body of the school, the School Principal, elected representatives from the Parents Association and the Alumni Association, teaching staff of the school, and independent representatives.
School Green Policy: 1. The school has installed the recycling bins, and used paper is collected for printing in staff rooms. 2. The school sets up the "Environmental Education Group" to promote environmental conservation. 3. Air conditioners in classrooms are to be switched on only when the room temperature is 26 degree Celsius or above. 4. All electrical appliances such as lights, fans, are to be switched off when the classroom is not in use. 5. Establish the Smart Green Campus.
Learning and Teaching Plan
Whole-school Language Policy: Our school is one of the first batch EMI schools approved in 1998 to use English as the medium of instruction in teaching. All subjects are taught in English except Chinese Language, Chinese History, Religious Education, Citizenship, Economics and Society, Citizenship and Social Development and Life and Society. In addition, the Chinese language classes (S1-3) are supplemented with teaching Putonghua periods. Such policies strengthen students' foundation in biliteracy and trilingualism.
Learning and Teaching Strategies: Our school encourages whole-person education which emphasizes students' moral, cognitive, physical, social, aesthetic, and spiritual development; uplifting their self-esteem; paving sound foundation on their language skills; building up discipline among them; and developing the spirit of serving others. Comprehensive measures to facilitate the participation of teachers and students: 1. Reading periods are held twice a cycle; 2. Organizing different language learning activities to enhance students' interest in biliteracy and trilingualism; 3. Students are encouraged to take part in external reading activities and contests; 4. Continue promoting self-directed learning.
School-based Curriculum: 1. Electives: 3X and 4X. With school's permission, students are allowed to take the 4th elective (M1 or M2) when promoted to S4. 2. Curriculum highlights: Students can take any 3 electives (can select M1 or M2 besides 3 electives) offered by the school according to their interests. Our school also provides enrichment courses of the 3 core subjects - Chinese Language, English Language and Mathematics. The school will also arrange students, who are interested in taking Applied Learning, enabling them to have a diversified learning and development.
Major Renewed Emphases in the School Curriculum: Reading to learn: In order to encourage students to read and write, the whole school are having a 'Drop Every Thing and Read (DEAR)' period in the morning twice a cycle; diverse types of reading schemes and exchange programmes are arranged; and reading elements are subsumed into the curriculum planning of every subject. Information technology for interactive learning: Apart from using information technology as a teaching tool, web-based learning and tests are also used in some subjects. Besides, activities like making models by using information technology are also being organised to assist students to learn. Project Learning: Different types of project learning activities are subsumed to strengthen our students' collaboration, communication and problem-solving skills. National Security Education: 'National Security Education Task Group'. Aims to promote National Security Education and the awareness of current affairs.
Life Planning Education: Our school arrange various careers activities: implementing 'Career and Life Planning Lessons' in F.1 and F.2; organising different kinds of careers and pre-work educational activities for F.3 to F.6 classes; apart from lessons on subject selection counselling and career mapping, we have held careers talk on faculties of universities, alumni sharing sessions, job shadowing, onsite workplace tours, individual and small group counselling, and assemblies etc.
Student Support
Whole School Approach to Catering for Learner Diversity: 1. Enhancement and Remedial courses are conducted to cater students' learning difference; 2. The curriculum of each subject is tailor-made to suit the particular needs of students; 3. Students are encouraged to take part in exchange programmes and activities outside the school in order to spot out students with hidden potentials and to emanate an atmosphere of pursuing the best of oneself.
Whole School Approach to Integrated Education: Our school strives to create an inclusive culture. We have set up Student Support Group which engages our Vice-Principal, Special Educational Needs Coordinator, Guidance Master, teacher with special educational needs training, teachers of core subjects, school educational psychologist, school-based speech therapist, stationing school social workers, student counselor (SEN) and teacher assistant. Our school takes whole school approach making use of Learning Support Grant and school resources to support students with special educational needs like giving them teaching and assessment accommodation. A professional student counselor is employed to coordinate and organize diverse activities such as integrated classrooms, attention-focus training group, study-groups for Diploma for Secondary Education Examination, social behavior and emotion training group and individual counseling services, etc. Besides, services for occupational therapy are hired for students in need of such training. Our school disseminates information on integrated education to all teachers so that they are updated with strategies and pedagogical advice. Teachers are encouraged to enroll in relevant courses on integrated education with a view to strengthening their professional knowledge and capabilities. Moreover, the members of the student support group keep close contact with parents to facilitate home-school cooperation. All these efforts are aimed to support learning and growth of our next generation.
Education Support for Non-Chinese Speaking (NCS) Students: Our school provides additional support for NCS students to facilitate their learning of Chinese: providing after-school support programmes in learning Chinese; appointing additional teacher(s)/teaching assistant(s) to support NCS students' learning of Chinese; arranging intensive Chinese learning and teaching mode(s), e.g. pull-out learning if necessary, split-class/group learning, etc.; developing school-based Chinese Language curriculum and/or adapting learning and teaching materials; and organising activities to create an inclusive learning environment in the school.
Measures to Provide Adaptation for Learning and Assessment: 1. 'Continuous Assessments' such as daily assignments, reading records; 2. Various modes of assessments like project-based learning reports, experimental skill assessments.

Home-School Co-operation and School EthosHome-School Co-operation:

To support the collaboration between the school and family education, our school has established a Parent-Teacher Association to foster closer connections among parents, students, and the school. Additionally, our school places great emphasis on parenting education and frequently organizes activities such as parent-child seminars, "DIY" workshops, etc.

School Ethos:

Our school pays great attention to students' behaviours both within and outside school. Students are cultivated into a self-discipline person with outstanding ethos and good manners. The implementation of 'Big Brothers and Big Sisters' Scheme enables each F.1 student to be under personal care of a senior student.
